Developed an image processing pipeline to remove glare artifacts from night-time dashcam footage.

Infosys Springboard

Project Intern

Bengaluru, India

Apr 2024 - Jun 2024

Built energy-consumption forecasting models using ARIMA and Gradient Boosting on web-scraped datasets. Developed a Flask interface for model predictions.

PROJECTS & RESEARCH

- Not All Errors Are Equal: Improving Worst-Group Accuracy with Disagreement-Based Selective Prediction
Accepted at IntelliSys 2026, Amsterdam - Springer LNNS
Developed a post-hoc selective prediction mechanism using disagreement between models with diverse decision boundaries to improve worst-group accuracy under spurious correlations.
- Formula 1 Factbot - Built a natural-language SQL agent using Gemini API and LangChain for querying Formula 1 datasets. Implemented schema handling and conversational context and deployed an interactive Streamlit application.
- AllerGenie - Chrome extension that filters e-commerce products based on user-specified allergen ingredients.
